Secure Your Inbox, Protect Your Patients

The two most common phishing methods are credential theft, which is when an email is leveraged to conduct a credential harvesting attack on your organization, and malware dropper attacks, when emails deliver malware that can compromise endpoints.

An organization's cybersecurity practices must address these two attack vectors because both attack types leverage email, email systems should be the focus for additional security controls.

More than 90% of successful cyber-attacks start with a phishing email

Your medical license will expire soon. Clik here to renew now

Security alert: Unauthorized login detected. Verify your account here.

Invoice #12345 is overdue. Clik here to pay or risk late fees.

Your Microsoft 365 account has been suspended. Click to reactivate.

Employee benefits update. Logn to your portal to review chnges.

Payroll processing error. Log in to approve your paycheck correction.

Urgent! PasswOrd expiring soon. Clik here to reset immediately.

UPS shipment faild to deliver. Track your package here to reschedule delivry.

Urgent! New COVID-19 protocls. Review the attched document for immediate compliance.